

ELI KAESEBIER ZUERLEIN

224-619-8484 | elizuerlein@gmail.com | elizuer@uw.edu

EDUCATION

University of Washington, Seattle

Class of 2028

Major: Molecular, Cellular, and Developmental Biology

- Tri-Beta Biological Honors Society
- GPA: 3.68
- Relevant Coursework: General Chemistry (143, 153), Calculus (125), Intro Biology (180, 200, 220), Physics (115), Organic Chemistry (237, 238), Biology (Evolution and Systematics)

Independent Study — R and RStudio in the Context of Biology

Text: R for Biologists — Author: Dr. Roohi Bansal

- Basics of R and RStudio
- Using repositories such as CRAN, Bioconductor, and GitHub
- Using ggplot2
- Manipulation and visualization of gene expression data

Purpose: To gain relevant skills in the field of biology for use in future research

Lake Forest High School

Class of 2024

- GPA: 5.27
- National Honors Society
- Cum Laude
- 3D-Art Departmental Award

WORK & EXTENDED VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

University of Washington Greenhouse — Volunteer

Sept 2025 – Current, Seattle, WA

- Performed general maintenance on plants in the greenhouse
- Identified and tagged plant specimens
- Prepared plant material for Biol 180 and Biol 220 labs
- Measured growth of specific plants
- Contributed to habitat restoration efforts

Lake Forest High School — Teacher's Assistant (Biology)

Jan 2024 – June 2024, Lake Forest, IL

Teacher: Kurt Schuessler

- Worked with students as a tutor
- Demonstrated labs
- Reviewed homework and exams with students

Heinen's Grocery — Front End Clerk

June 2022 – Aug 2022, Bannockburn, IL

- Learned to communicate with people in a professional manner
- Worked with customers on a daily basis
- Learned to complete tasks in a timely manner

SKILLS HIGHLIGHTS

Communication, Time Management, Flexibility, Problem Solving, Learning, and Working with Others

ACTIVITIES & EXTRACURRICULARS

Triangle Fraternity, UW Chapter

Position: Recruitment Vice President (Current)

- Triangle is a fraternity for STEM majors where curious and hardworking young adults gather to share ideas and experiences
- Provides opportunities to connect with others who share similar interests
- Pairs each member with an alumni mentor for guidance during and after college

UW Climbing Team

- Climbing multiple times a week in a team setting
- Workouts focused on growth and strength training
- Competing against other colleges in the area

Ceramics

- Creating unique and interesting pieces of pottery
- Practicing trial and error to improve technique
- 1,000+ hours on a ceramics wheel